I'm happy to talk to anyone about the offshore disposal issue. There may be a few questions about PV Shelf that are best for Judy to answer. Then there are even other questions that John Lyons can best answer. But OK to start with me if you'd like.

John

I also think it is fine, but PV Shelf is not in my group, so I will defer to John on that call. John: let me know if you have any questions about context here.

I'm fine with the concept. I think John knows the most about this, but he's trying to impart as much info as he can to others. I agree that generality is better for Deb, and, happily, that's about the level of knowledge we have on the subject anyway.
